The Top Hand Stockmanship and Stewardship Program is a series of cattle handling contests designed to educate and equip Georgia's youth with the skills, knowledge and confidence to be successful advocates and/or employees for the beef industry.

The UGA Beef Team and the Georgia Cattlemen's Association team up with cattle producers and UGA Research/Teaching herds across Georgia to provide three Regional Contests and the chance to compete for the state title.

Open to 8th-12th Grade Students
